

Join us in welcoming our new team members!

Lea Garcia | MYEEP Coordinator

Lea is a Salvadoran American who grew up in San Francisco. She is a public health educator with a passion for serving the community, working with vulnerable populations, and striving for social justice and health equity. She is a first-generation college graduate reviving her Bachelors of Science in Public Health from San Francisco State University. Outside of work, Lea loves to travel, crochet, read and film photography.

Veasna Teav | Bilingual Community Navigator - Cambodian

Veasna Teav was born in Cambodia but grew up in Stockton, CA. He just finished serving in the military a couple years ago. After the military, he moved to the Bay Area to finish school and graduated with a Criminal Justice degree from the San Francisco State University. In his down time, he enjoys playing games and trying new food. On top of that, he also likes to travel a lot and he's glad he got to many more places than he thought he would've thanks to the military. Veasna is looking forward to working with everyone and helping out our community.

Ivy Ho | Director of Finance and Operations

Ivy is originally from Hong Kong; sojourned in Europe, Singapore, & have settled down in the San Francisco Bay Area after my marriage. She received her first Master degree in Business Administration from the University of Leicester in England & an MBA degree with concentration in Accounting from the San Francisco State University. She is a Certified Management Accountant, CMA, with the IMA. Before joining the SEADC, she served in the capacity of Finance Director in several nonprofit organizations for more than 10 years, leading the areas of Finance, Administration & Operations. Ivy is passionate about serving children & families in the underserved communities, joining the efforts in improving social & economic equities. At leisure, she enjoys traveling, hiking, and dining.
