

Ivy Ho | Director of Finance and Operations

I am originally from Hong Kong; sojourned in Europe, Singapore, & have settled down in the San Francisco Bay Area after my marriage. I received my first Master degree in Business Administration from the University of Leicester in England &; an MBA degree with concentration in Accounting from the San Francisco State University. I am a Certified Management Accountant, CMA, with the IMA. Before joining the SEADC, I have served in the capacity of Finance Director in several nonprofit organizations for more than 10 years, leading the areas of Finance, Administration & Operations. I am passionate about serving children & families in the underserved communities, joining the efforts in improving social & economic equities. At leisure, I enjoy traveling, hiking, and dining.

Danthu Pham | Bilingual Family Liaison (Vietnamese)

I was born in Vietnam but raised in Southern California with my parents and older brother. I attended CSU Fullerton from 2014-2017; I later obtained my teaching credentials and my M.A. of Education in Dual Language Development by 2019. For a few years, I have been studying and working abroad in Vietnam, Cambodia, Spain, and Canada. I have been a full-time teacher at the Tenderloin Community School in San Francisco for about 2 years before joining SEADC. I enjoy traveling, exploring nature, and cooking with friends. I am excited to be part of the Youth Development team and would like to continue contributing my bilingual, management, teaching, and critical thinking skills. I am also looking forward to devoting time to support the local community and to help make it a healthier, safe place for the youth and their families.
